Housing for All Delivery Group
Note of Meeting
11th May 2022

Item	Update/Action	Owner
Q2 Progress Update	All Depts have completed first submission of progress for Q2. All owners requested to maintain progress and keep actions on track for delivery. Key actions this quarter include First Home Shared Equity Scheme and Launch of Croí Cónaithe Expressions of Interest. Delivery Group noted that the need to provide accommodation to those fleeing Ukraine is having some impact on the delivery of Housing for All.	HfA Secretariat, All
Social/Affordable Housing Delivery	Social housing delivery remains broadly on track, though delivery capacity being impacted by necessity to respond to Ukraine situation and cost inflation. Measures introduced this week (Inflation Co-operation Framework) should help. New streams and initiatives for delivery of affordable housing now up and running.	DHLGH
Report from Dedicated Workstreams	Importance of policy stability in attracting investment reiterated. Initiatives underway to attract international labour for key skills gaps. Importance of maintaining momentum on delivery of social housing reemphasised. Memo to explore further opportunities to repurpose state lands and property for residential use to go to Government shortly.	All
Ukraine Response	While the Ukraine response is the subject of a separate senior officials group, it is clear that there are overlaps between the two streams and the longer-term Ukraine initiatives will need to be co-ordinated with HfA delivery.	DHLGH
Communications	Cross-Government group continues to co-ordinate communications for HfA. Considerable momentum now generated.	GIS
Data	Early data points to housing delivery on track for 2022, but will need careful monitoring	All
